

*Large tours are welcome.
Large picnic area is available.*

A different experience every time you visit

An educational experience for all ages

Cedar Cove is a non-profit organization devoted to the care and preservation of endangered large cats, while educating the public on their behavior, physiology, habitats—and the threats and danger of extinction.

- A 501 (C) (3) organization. Donations are welcome.
- Licensed USDA exhibitor.
- Institutional member of the American Association of Zookeepers.
- Member of Louisburg Chamber of Commerce.

Admission

$5 for adults, children 5 and under are FREE.
Special rates for groups of 25+.

Location

3783 K-68 Hwy.
Louisburg, KS 66053
20 min. south of metro Kansas City on US Hwy. 69
4 mi. east of Louisburg exit on K-68 Hwy.

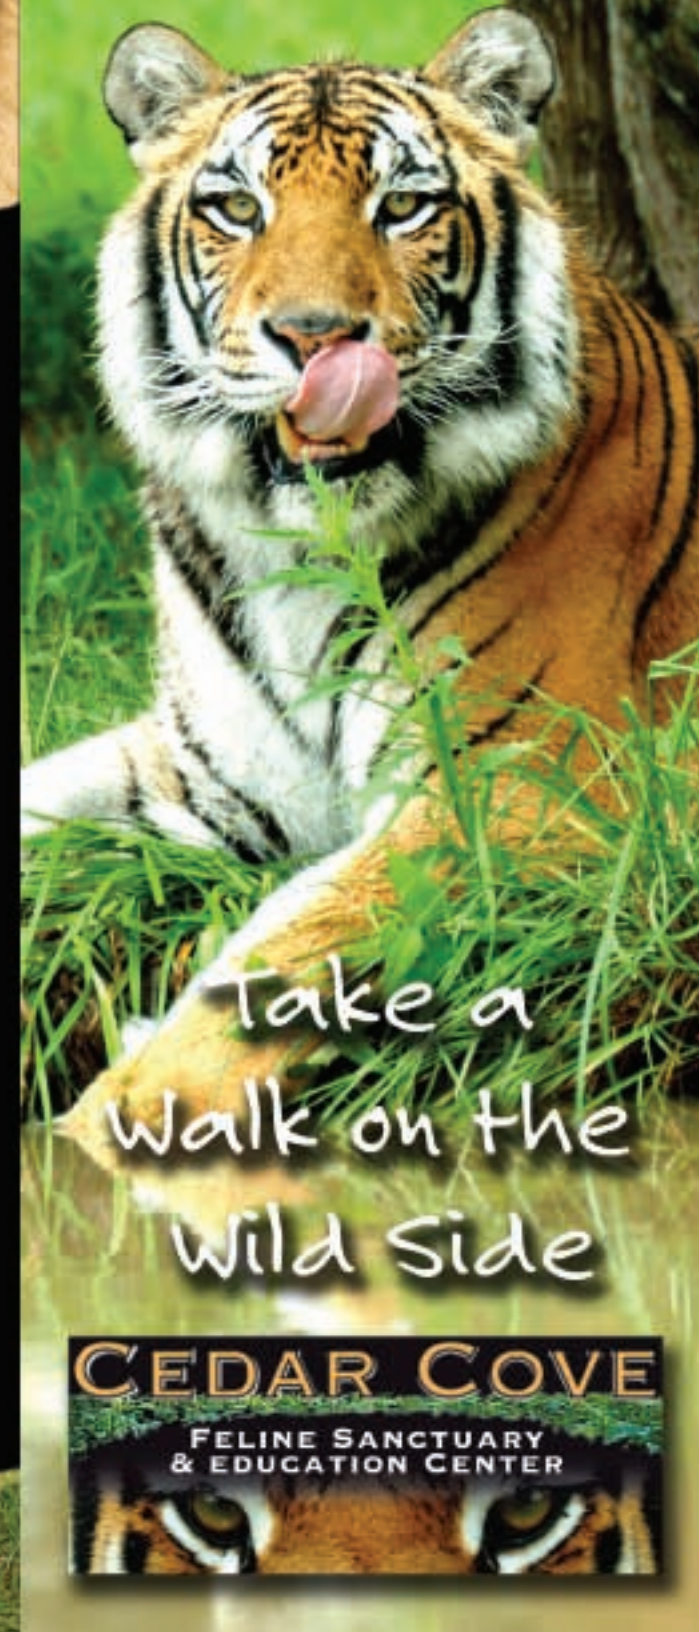

Hours

April-October 10am-3pm • Saturday & Sunday
November-March 10am-2pm • Saturday only Private and group tours available Monday thru Friday.

913.837.5515

www.saveoursiberians.org

Open to the public year-round

Take a walk on the wild side

Leopards

Tigers

Cougars

Caracals

Bobcats

Black Leopards

William Pottorff, Founder

Our founder has always had a passion for wildlife. A decorated Vietnam Veteran, he saw many big cats lose their habitat during the war and pledged to help. He opened the sanctuary in 2000 with the goal of becoming a public education center, drawing on his 30 years' experience raising big cats.

Call us today for a walk on the wild side 913.837.5515

All photos ©2008 by Kevin White, On Location Photography 913.294.5220